BONAPARTE TALKS TO ROOSEVELT

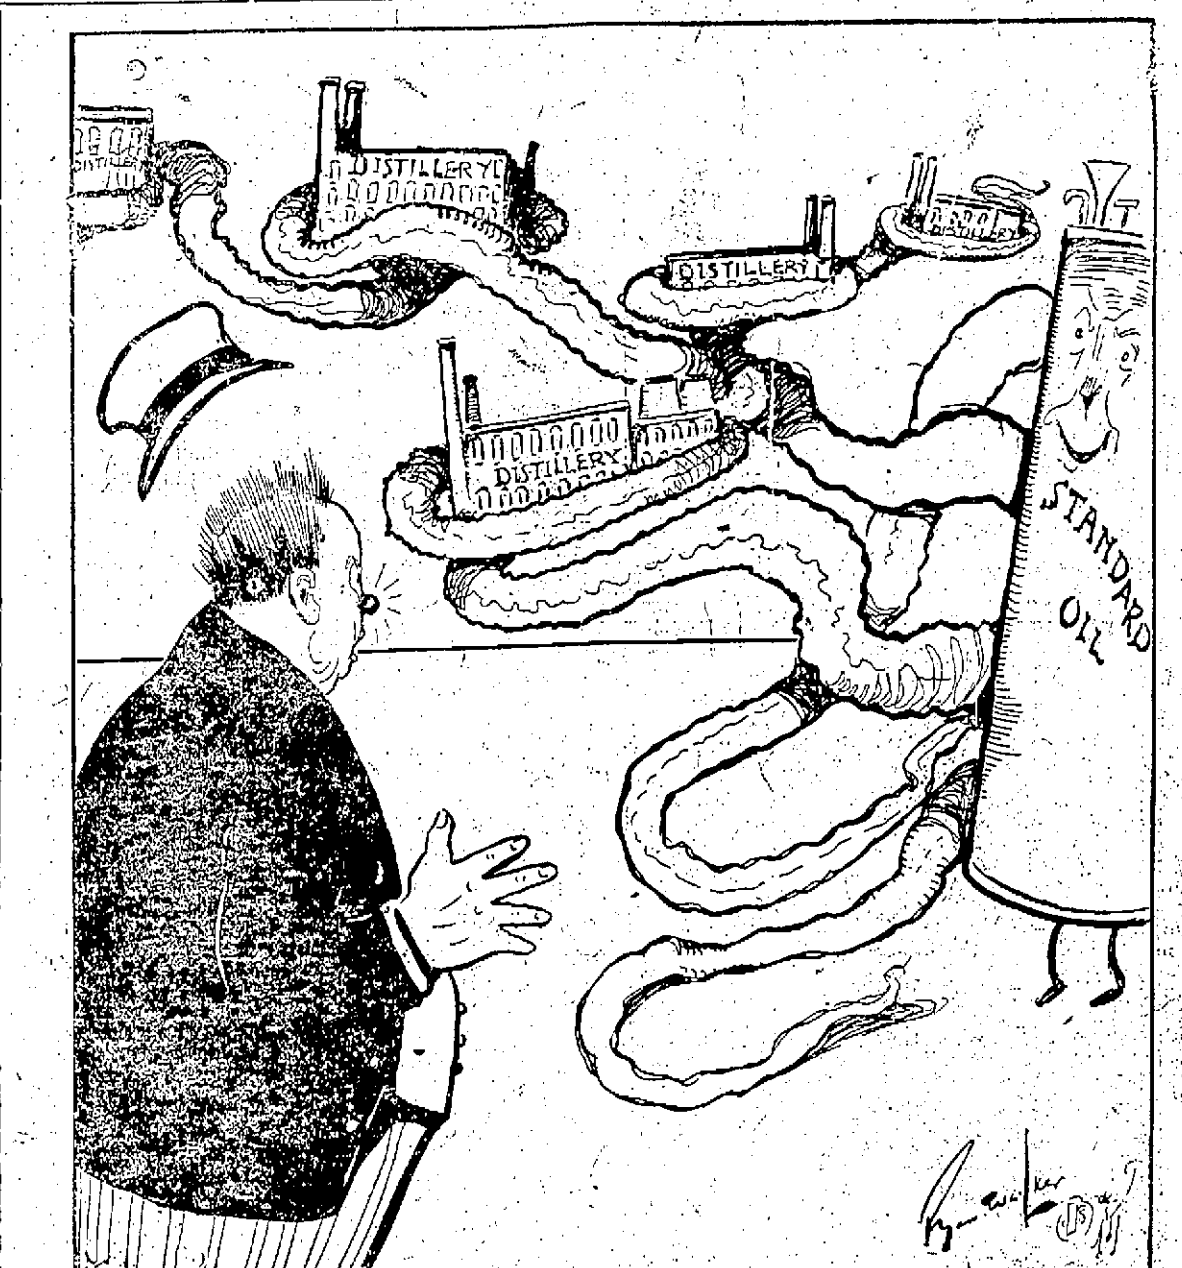

Landing Of Sailors In Cuba Yesterday Was Not Strictly According To Order—Later Developments.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., Sept. 14.—Strict neutrality between the warring factions of Cuba, but with every possible precaution to protect American life and property, is the policy of the United States.
Wait Settlement
Havana, Sept. 14.—Alfred Zayas, president of the liberal party, and General Castillo, commander of the insurgent forces in Havana province, have sent two more emissaries to Commander Colwell offering to come and surrender on board the Denver this afternoon. Captain Colwell has replied that he is unable to interfere and that President Palma is communicating with Washington on the matter.
Ask Them to Cease
The emissaries sent to Havana by Alfred Zayas informed the Associated Press that Zayas had telegraphed the insurgent commander of every province to cease fighting because of negotiations pending for a surrender to the American naval commander.

Sailors Withdrawn
Havana, Sept. 14.—Mr. Sleeper, the charge d'affaires, has received a cablegram from Washington directing him to request the withdrawal of the Denver's sailors. This he did in a note to Commander Colwell. Captain Colwell conferred with President Palma. As a result the force of sailors are about to be withdrawn.
More Fighting
Havana, Sept. 14.—Three hundred insurgents attacked the rural guards on the morning of the 13th at Zaza in Santa Clara province. The government lost 18 men and the insurgents' loss is unknown. The government forces retreated.
Goes to Oyster Bay
New York, Sept. 14.—Secretary of the Navy, Bonaparte left this morning for Oyster Bay to discuss the Cuban situation with the President. The secretary said he had received no intelligence whatever concerning the landing in Havana of United States blue jackets, except that contained in the Associated Press dispatches.
Serious Matter
He declared the landing and quartering of sailors bearing arms in a country at which we are at peace was a serious matter, and whether it was discrete or otherwise it would develop from the commander's report.
Secretary Bonaparte said while he had no official report from Cuba, the public reports made the situation look serious, at least to Americans who have capital invested in the island. "I expect the Americans who have money invested there would like to have the United States intervene," he said.
The report was not made public, but it was announced officially shortly afterward that the sailors were landed from the Denver solely and simply for the protection of the lives and property of the American citizens; that such action was in pursuance of a discussion between Mr. Sleeper and the naval commander with the belief that it was a wise precaution looking to the protection of the lives and property of Americans.
Simply to Protect Americans.
There was no intention, it is stated, to do otherwise than to safeguard American interests, and the services of the sailors were to be utilized only in case of disorders within the city which threatened such interests. That the landing, any way contemplated the

336 PIANOS NOW IN JANESVILLE

CHARACTER AND VALUE OF PROPERTY OWNED HERE.

ACCORDING TO ASSESSORS

Is Set Forth in Report Which City Clerk Baizer Has Just Turned Over to County Clerk.

According to the findings of the assessors, embodied in a statement to the county clerk prepared by City Clerk Arthur E. Badger, wherein are set forth the aggregate number and value of the several items of personal and real property appearing upon the assessment rolls, Janesville now has 336 pianos worth $31,190. Last year there were but 144 valued at $14,285, which shows conclusively that either the city is blessed with unusual prosperity (true anyway) or that the 1906 assessors had a better ear for music and eye for musical instruments than their predecessors. As an argument for improved musical taste it appears that the 8 organs and melodions, worth $215 last year, have shrunk to 2 worth $55 this year. In view of these developments it would appear that Beloit's 1905 boast and claim to being the musical center of Rock county, based as it was on a comparison of the assessors' returns on pianos in the two cities, was in reality without foundation. Janesville, has counted 336 and probably has some more to spare.

Small Tribute to Vanity

If it be true, as the assessors have found, that Bower City residents possess but five watches valued at over $50 each, and these worth collectively but $135, the fact only emphasizes what has always been believed: that vanity is not one of the characteristics of our people. Within the city there are, according to the assessors, no mules, or asses, sheep or lambs, and but 49 swine, valued at $20. There are, however, 882 horses valued at $51,900, as compared with 687 valued at $38,545 last year—an increase of 135 in number and $13,355 in value. There are also 245 meat cattle worth $5,730.

Bank and Merchants' Stock

Bank stock owned in the city is placed at $504,000, an increase of $2,500 over last year's assessment. The stock has not been valued according to the published capitalization of the financial institutions. The Merchants & Mechanics bank, for instance, has $250,000 stock which is assessed at $157,500. The value set on merchants and manufacturers' stock is $648,190, an increase of $35,481 over last year's rating. The value of real and personal property and franchises of the water and light companies also comes in for a boost of $31,000, the present valuation being $500,000.

Big Leaf Tobacco Increase

There is a raise of $125,250 in the assessment of leaf tobacco, last year's estimate of $154,335 being increased to $279,585 this year. 970 carriages, wagons, and sleighs are listed at $28,139. Last year there were 753 on the books with a valuation of $22,132. The increase is $6,007. Bicycles have disappeared from the rolls, but 27 gasoline launches which have never before appeared on the rolls are assessed at $4,305. The 1905 "fleet" of 13 automobiles valued at $4,950 has been increased to 24 machines valued at $15,475—a gain of $10,525. The average amount of money, notes, bonds, etc., taxed is $38,878, and the value of miscellaneous personal property not classified is $88,603. The total value of personal property in the city is $2,265,702—an increase of $379,213 over last year. Farm Land and City Lots

Last year the assessors located but 2,110 acres of farm land. This year the acreage is placed at 2,128.86 acres. The value of the land exclusive of buildings and improvements is placed at $239,710; and the improvements at $237,905, making a total of $477,615. This total is an increase of $4,235 over last year's total for the same classification. The aggregate value of city and village lots, exclusive of improvements, is set at $2,529,710 and the separate value of buildings, etc., at $4,345,725, total—$6,875,505. This is an increase of $336,570 over last year. The total valuation of Janesville real estate and buildings is $7,432,180 and the grand total of all property, real and personal, is $9,758,942—an increase over last year's grand total of $711,558.

ODD ACTING BELGIAN DROPPED BANK BOOK OUT OF JAIL WINDOW

In Beloit Last Night and Jumped into River When He Recovered It Today—Formerly Worked Here.

Leo Buysse, a Belgian with a deposit of $60 in the Bower City bank of Janesville, accidentally dropped his bank-book out a rear window in the Beloit lock-up, where he was lodging last evening. Upon recovering it this morning he suddenly jumped into the river and swam as far as Murray Garlick's cigar store. When fished out he told the officers that someone was seeking his life. Chief Schiebel brought him to Janesville this morning and lodged him in the county jail, pending an investigation into his mental condition. Buysse worked here for the water company before going to Beloit.

TWO YEARS IN THE STATE'S PRISON FOR STEALING A HORSE

That Was the Sentence Meted Out to Peter Chris Marks on His Plea of "Guilty" Today.

Two years in the state's prison at Waupun was the sentence meted out in municipal court this morning to Peter Chris Marks, the nineteen-year-old lad who stole a horse from Edward Beseker Wednesday night. Marks said that he did not know why he committed the crime. He came to this country from Denmark two years ago. "The law which provides a light punishment under $25 in value stipulates a heavy penalty for horse stealing, and that is the difference between the case of Napoleon Simard tried yesterday and that of the rather dull-witted young foreigner who was brought up today."

"JEFF" MEDOFF'S SUICIDE

At Schafer House in Orfordville Last Evening and the Sad Circumstances of Tragedy.

"Jeff" Medoff, an old resident of Rock county who had been living with his sister, Mrs. E. M. Penn, 109 West Milwaukee street, for the past year and believed to be a veteran of the Civil War, arrived in Orfordville from Janesville Wednesday evening and while wending his way from the depot was accosted by the marshal, who asked him where he was going. "To the cemetery," was the old gentleman's response. "Why, it's too late for you to do anything there," said the officer. Medoff remarked that he "guessed it wasn't too late to die," but yielded to the persuasion of the marshal who offered to procure lodging for him at the Schafer House.

Took Dose of Morphine

Sometime before eleven o'clock last evening Dr. Keithly was summoned to the hotel and upon his arrival found the aged man dying from a dose of morphine administered by his own hand. Efforts to save his life proved unavailing. The physician communicated with District Attorney J. L. Fisher this morning, stating that the suicide had no money and asking what disposition should be made of the remains. Poor Commissioner Kenyon is away on a vacation and will not return until the fifteenth. It is believed that the deceased was an old soldier and, if so, there is a fund from which expenses, not exceeding $35, can be drawn. If not, the Beloit poor commissioner will have to be consulted. The dying man left behind him a letter, believed to have been composed in Janesville prior to his arrival in Orfordville. The text was as follows:

"No Chance to Rest"

"Sept. 13, 1906.
"I am 64 years of age, and 46 years ago planted corn in the cemetery where my father, mother and sister are now buried. Dig a grave, by my sister's grave, put me in a rough box, and bury me as soon as possible.
"Please do not notify my relatives until I have been buried. They have trouble of their own.
"There is no use of an inquest as I have taken morphine enough to put me to sleep right.
"Give my cheap watch to the person that buries me.
"I have been troubled with rheumatism and have not been able to work since last March. I have no money, no home, and am 64 years old and have no chance to rest. So this ends all.
"I know nothing of the future, but will before the sun rises again, and will take my chances.
"I have never been very bad, so I go with the expectation of meeting my parents, sister and wife in the next country if there is one.
"Good-by.
"T. J. MEDOFF.

IMPRESSIVE UNVEILING OF MCKINLEY MONUMENT

Alice Roosevelt Longworth Tore Drapery From Heroic Figure of Ohio's Illustrious Son.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Columbus, O., Sept. 14.—Tribute was paid today to William McKinley, patriot and president, when the McKinley monument to Ohio's illustrious son was unveiled in the presence of a gathering that included many distinguished visitors from all parts of Ohio and from other states as well. The statue is placed at the west entrance to the state capitol grounds, where a vast crowd of people gathered to witness the unveiling ceremonies.
Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, Governor A. L. Harris, Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia and Justice William H. Day of the United States supreme court were the principal participants in the ceremonies. The invited guests included many men who were intimately associated with the martyred president in public life. Grand Army veterans from all parts of Ohio were in attendance. Conspicuous among them were Gen. R. B. Brown of Zanesville, national commander of the G. A. R., and Gen. Joseph W. McKay, national commander of the Union Veteran Legion.
The program opened with selections of patriotic music, following which Dr. Washington Gladden delivered the invocation. Governor Harris delivered a brief address and then introduced Mrs. Longworth, who had the honor of pulling the cords that loosed the drapery of flags concealing the monument.
The daughter of the President was given the signal and she seized hold of the ropes with a quick, determined grasp that bespoke the Roosevelt spirit through and through. She gave one pull and then another. The crowd stood as one man, expectant and intent. Another quick pull, and within a moment the stately folds about the monument began to shake and part. Gradually they dropped away and off the heroic figure, and all at once they fell from the monument in a heap and the whole world stood revealed. As the statue came into full view its magnificence was strikingly presented to the people. A mighty cheer, such as welcome the great ship as she slides into the water after the christening, was heard; and the band struck up "America."
Governor Harris acted as master of ceremonies and made a short speech in which he referred most eloquently to the great man who passed from earth five years ago today and to the artistic beauty of the monument which H. A. MacNeill has modeled to perpetuate the McKinley name. Governor Harris presented Mr. MacNeill, who was received with great applause. It was at this juncture that Mrs. Longworth was given her cue to pull the ropes that released the draperies covering the monument.
Justice Day, who was a member of Mr. McKinley's cabinet and one of his most intimate personal friends, was greeted with hearty applause as he stepped forward to deliver his address. He spoke in his usual earnest and emphatic way and frequently was applauded. Justice Day was followed by Senator Daniel, who spoke at considerable length and extolled President McKinley. Both addresses were sincere enlargements of the character devoted fealty to country and home, and the courageous qualities of the martyr whose statue served to inspire the sentences.
The monument unveiled today takes first rank for artistic beauty among the many that have been erected to the memory of President McKinley. The memorial consists of three central figures, two groups and the statue of the president, in the middle. On one side is "Peace" and on the other "Prosperity," representing in bronze two cardinal principles for which the dead president stood. When he received the wounds which resulted in his death, he was talking prosperity and peace. The statue represents him as he appeared standing before the people at Buffalo, and a large part of the text of his last address is in relief. The statue is warmly commended by those who were most closely acquainted with Mr. McKinley. It was with some difficulty and only after months of study that the sculptor felt satisfied that he had truly reproduced the president in the pose that was characteristic of him and one so well known to the people of the entire country.
The group of Peace portrays a child and its mother, in an easy pose, apparently listening to what the speaker is saying. It is a bronze statue of a typical American woman. The figure of Prosperity shows a toiler and an apprentice, both listening to the remarks of the president. The statue of the president and the two groups are of bronze and the entire memorial stands upon a handsome granite base, the sides of which bear suitable inscriptions. The location of the monument is a conspicuous one, being directly in front of the main entrance to the state capitol.

ROOSEVELT ENTERS ON HIS SIXTH YEAR

Took Oath of Office of President September 14, 1901—Sworn in Late in Afternoon.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 14.—President Roosevelt, who is enjoying the closing days of his summer vacation at Oyster Bay, today begins his sixth year as chief executive of the nation. It was on Sept. 14, 1901, that Mr. Roosevelt took the oath of office. On the preceding day the attention of the whole world was centered on Millburn house at Buffalo, from which bulletins were issued in the afternoon announcing that President McKinley was sinking. Vice-President Roosevelt, who, like the rest of the public, had been led to believe by the physicians' reports earlier in the week that the President would recover, had gone on a trip in the New England mountains. When he received word that there had been a turn for the worse in the President's condition he hurried on to Buffalo and arrived just before the end came. In the middle of the afternoon, shortly after the final summons, President Roosevelt was sworn into office by Secretary of State Day.

COLORADO G. O. P. IS IN CONVENTION

Open Field for Gubernatorial Aspirants—Roosevelt Will Be Heartily Endorsed.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Denver, Colo., Sept. 14.—Not to be influenced by any thought of the proverbial ill luck of Friday, the republicans of Colorado assembled in convention in Denver today to name a state ticket which they are sure will be successful at the polls in November. A total of nearly 900 delegates were in their seats when the convention was formally called to order in the Broadway theatre at 10 o'clock this morning. The forenoon was taken up with the opening addresses, roll call, committee appointments and other business of a perfunctory nature. The nominations will hardly be reached before late this afternoon or evening. The nominations to be made are for one congressman-at-large, two justices of the supreme court, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction and two regents of the state university. There is an open field for the gubernatorial nomination, with a number of names mentioned. Among them are John A. Holberg, the present state treasurer, Frank C. Gwady of Denver, and Philip B. Stewart of Colorado Springs. The resolutions will deal chiefly with state issues. National questions will be dismissed with a hearty endorsement of President Roosevelt and his administration.

INTERNATIONAL LIVE STOCK SHOW PLANS

Seventh Exhibition to Be Held in Chicago This Year Will Be Greatest in History.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 14.—Though this year's international live stock exhibition in Chicago is still more than three months off evidence is already abundant that the show will be the greatest of its kind ever held in this country. The exhibition will be the seventh of its kind to be held in Chicago. Like those of past years the exposition will be held entirely in buildings constructed especially for the purpose. These include the great amphitheatre, which is the largest structure in the world devoted to such purposes. The show will open December 1 and continue one week. The usual large number of pure bred live stock associations will hold their annual meetings in the city during the exposition period. Stock breeders and dealers will be on hand from all parts of America and from England, France and Australia.

WILLIAM WILLIAMS STARTLED NATIVES

Janesville, Man. Gave Rifle Exhibition at Columbia City, Indiana, Recently.
 William R. Williams, until recently in the consular business in Janesville and well known as a crack shot among trappers in Southern Wisconsin, recently startled the citizens of Columbia City, Indiana, with a rifle exhibition. He is now traveling for the Scherer-Gillett Cigar company of Chicago and on a visit in the Hoosier town discounted all work that had ever been done with the gun there. He used a twenty-two repeating rifle and after hitting pieces of brick and all manner of small objects that were tossed into the air in rapid succession he topped off the show with a truly good feat. With four bullets at a distance of forty feet he cut a hole in the bottom of a baking powder can and then with a card placed over the muzzle of the gun, so that the site was invisible, he fired ten shots into the hole without so much as missing the edges. Onlookers saw that there was no fake in the performance, examining both the shells to see that they contained bullets and locating the lead in a board behind the can.

Progress of the County Fair.
 The day opened clear and beautiful this morning, giving well for the County Fair. The attendance on the grounds today was most creditable, and encourages the Society to believe that notwithstanding all the adverse circumstances the Fair will not prove a failure.

The show of horses, cattle, hogs and sheep is better than we have many times seen at State Fairs. In machinery and agricultural implements the display is rather meager. The hall for the exhibition of the products of the farm and the dairy contains some good specimens, particularly in the last-named feature. The building devoted to fine arts, fruits and flowers has an attractive array of articles incident to that department.

We look for a large attendance on the ground tomorrow, as in addition to the other attractions, the address by Senator Howe will transpire on the ground.

 Dear Sir: It is part of your business to keep the school buildings in good shape, and painting is one of the ways of doing it.

It looked so well that the school director ordered Devco for his own house. Black Boys sold the paint.

THE INTERURBAN FRANCHISE

The interurban franchise is to come before the council next Monday evening, and it is reported, on good authority, that the ordinance is to be held up on account of objectionable features. A number of protests have been filed by property-owners along certain streets and these seem to be of more importance than the prosperity of the city.

The new line contemplates the purchase of the city railway with many improvements and extensions, among them the extension of the Forest Park line by loop to the fair grounds and down Milwaukee avenue. The residents of this thoroughfare are said to object to the use of the street. A double track on Franklin street may also be necessary and this is regarded as something of a calamity.

The freight clause has partially lost its terrors, for a little observation has convinced the most skeptical that interurban roads with sharp curves are not intended for heavy freight traffic.

While the granting of a long franchise should be carefully considered and the interests of the city properly safeguarded, the fact should not be overlooked that the granting of the franchise now under consideration is of more importance to the city than anything that has been presented for years.

It means in the first place a modern and well equipped city railway system. This in itself will enhance the value of property and add to the wealth and comfort of the city.

The line to Madison has long been considered desirable and if the present effort to establish it fails the city will wait a long time for another opportunity.

The present promoters are entitled to fair and liberal treatment. A delay in granting the franchise may result in their abandoning the field and should they do so the city will be the loser for years to come.

The council can not afford to be influenced by the protests of a few property-owners. People who live in cities expect to put up with some annoyances and the greatest good to the greatest number is the question for the council to consider.

Janesville needs railroads and factories and above all it needs to cultivate a spirit of enterprise and a determination to work together for the welfare of the city.

If the council feels that it needs the endorsement of public sentiment before taking favorable action then a mass meeting should be called and the taxpayers given an opportunity to speak for themselves. There is no question about what the people want. They want the railroad and the council will be censured if the enterprise is defeated.

WHY NOT CUT HIM OUT?

It is said that Senator La Follette will attempt to influence and control the republican platform convention soon to be held in Madison.

Some one asks the very pertinent question, "By what divine right does he claim this privilege?"

What has Senator La Follette to do with this convention any more than Senator Spooner or any other republican in the state?

The people of the state recently said to him in most emphatic language, "We don't propose to longer submit to your dictation," and yet he is planning, through the people's representatives, to defeat their will, so strongly expressed at the primaries.

It is to be hoped that the convention will possess the good sense to treat him as an interloper. The state can exist for a few years without his erratic leadership, and will find plenty of occupation in an effort to digest the reform measures already foisted upon it.

The republican party as a party can't use him for he only recognizes a fragment of the party. The state administration can afford to dispense with his services, unless ready to retire and place him in absolute control.

When elected to the senate he was supposed to devote his time and energies to the affairs of national government. He has already discovered that the senate is sadly in need of reforming, and he should lose no time in going after his senatorial colleagues.

To be sure he is the godfather of reform in Wisconsin, and the sacred relationship has been loyally recognized by an offspring which delighted to do him homage, but when they placed him on a pedestal in the senate the feeling was quite general that he should be satisfied for a time at least and give some of the other boys a chance.

It is quite possible that Davidson, Connor and the balance of the state ticket, aided by legislative candidates, are capable of drafting a platform which will meet the approval of the party without the aid of senatorial interference.

Thinking Stage

September might well be termed the "time of thinking." It is the month when people are looking around, sizing up things, turning over in their minds this, that, and the other things that they have seen in the stores—a time of posting, comparing, planning.

Conditions do not change much, it is the same year after year. We expect it. We are only too glad to have the opportunity to show the new goods. One can not come too often to suit us, as we are receiving something new every day the year around.

EMPHASIZING DIFFERENT LINES.

This week we are calling particular attention to RUGS and CARPETS, and would say that it will be time well spent to call and get ideas from our window displays, and then visit our carpet department, where the largest stock of floor coverings for many miles can be seen in all its greatness.

Come, look around, ask questions.

Next week it's Blankets.

IT'S NO LAUGHING MATTER

UP TO COUNCIL; PASS ORDINANCE OR LOSE ROADS

MADISON-JANESVILLE INTERUR-
BAN MEANS PROSPERITY.

DELAYS MAY BE FATAL

Attorney Nolan Gives an Interview on the Question at Issue Today —Worth Reading.

In view of the fact that considerable opposition has sprung up on the part of property-holders and others against certain requests of the proposed Madison-Janesville interurban and there is a question whether the franchise asked for will be passed by the council, Thos. S. Nolan, who is Mr. Clough's personal representative, said this morning regarding the matter:

"I regret very much that opposition has developed to the granting of the franchise as requested by Mr. Clough and his colleagues. I know that when the extensions to the city line were decided upon it was thought to be for the best interests of the city, as well as the project.

"Some people object because it is proposed to build tracks in front of their premises; others because the tracks of the Rockford, Beloit & Janesville Railway company will be paralleled for a few feet; and still others because it is proposed to carry freight. This opposition is hard to understand. The people who object to tracks in front of their houses are perfectly willing that they should go in front of someone else's property. Double street railway tracks in places like Rockford, Milwaukee, Chicago and other cities, are not objected to by the citizens of those towns, while street railways carry freight through almost every city of any importance in the country. Most everyone here has personal knowledge of the carriage of freight by the interurban roads that run into the city of Rockford.

"Perhaps because Janesville has not improved or gone ahead to any great extent for a number of years some of her citizens believe she should be allowed to sleep. Possibly a covering of grass on some of the streets that are thought so valuable would look better and be more pleasing to the eye than street railway tracks. Everyone is entitled to his opinion, however, about such matters.

"I am glad to note that the men who have the largest stake in the city; those whom we look upon as leaders in our commercial life, realize the importance of encouraging the Janesville and Madison railway project, and are doing what they can to aid it.

"I violate no confidence, and I speak by the card, when I state that unless the franchise requested is passed without any material change, and as soon as practicable, the men who are interested in the Janesville and Madison Railway company will pass Janesville by. The people should not assume that a street railway franchise over the streets of this city is worth anything, because it is not. The experience of the Janesville Street railway demonstrates this.

"Only when operated in connection with an interurban railway will a local line be of value to its owners. If it is worth anything to the city of Janesville to have a modern local street railway line, with interurban connection with Milton, Milton Junction, Edgerton, Stoughton and Madison, with frequent service, Mr. Clough and his associates should be encouraged, not vexed and embarrassed if such an enterprise is of no value, then refuse them at once the privileges asked for. I was the attorney for the electric railway, and I personally know that the steam railways persistently fought the granting of franchises to the Rockford, Beloit & Janesville Railway company in the cities through which it passes. This opposition was not open, but it was strong. I understand from reliable sources that the steam railways are working here at present, and claim to have one or more aldermen who will defeat the ordinance, or so enunciate it that it will not be accepted. This opposition, of course, is expected, but it should not be effective.

"In this matter the common council should have nerve and stamina, enough to ignore the protests of the few, accede to the wishes of the many, and do its best to speed our city on its way to prosperity."

GOLFERS ARE IN ROCKFORD TODAY

Several Ladies Accompanied Team
Composed of About Fifteen Players on Annual Junket.

This morning a party of ladies and a golf team composed of about fifteen of the local players departed for Rockford, where the annual contest is in progress this afternoon. Before returning the local party will lay before their hosts for consideration the plan of making the return visit here next week the occasion for a "costume tourney" and "harvest" home supper and dance. If the idea meets with favor among the Forest City people they will come here arrayed in pastoral and motley costumes and will be met at the local station by a reception committee similarly garbed. No "plain clothes" crookers will be allowed on the grounds. Those who took the trip this morning were: Al Schaller, Frank Fifield, J. P. Baker, Mark Bostwick, Chester Morse, Dr. P. B. Farnsworth, Harry Carter, L. M. Merceron, A. M. Valentine, Rollin Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Lane and their guest, Miss Mason, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McGiffin, Mrs. Francis Grant, Miss Agnes Grant, and Mrs. E. A. Gowran of Portage, and Miss Isabel Smith.

To the Apollo Club: I am just informed that the manager of "The Greater Love" company claims that the engagement with the club for Saturday afternoon cannot be filled. Therefore the concert will not be given. Ogden H. Fethers, President.

James Casey, Sr., went to Milwaukee today to witness the state fair horse races.

COURT REVIEWED A NEIGHBORHOOD ROW

Mrs. Katherine Egan Was Arrested on Charge of Trespassing on Mrs. Johanna Frank's Property.

The Court, mildly: "This case must be tried at once. You may telephone for a lawyer if you care to."

Mrs. Katherine Egan: "I'll telephone for no attorney; I'll put off the case for a couple of days. To bring me here when I've had no dinner! I know something about the law—there have been cases against me before and I've paid big costs just for talking out my own back window. There is no justice for a poor woman in Janesville. That woman pulled up the surveyor's stakes."

Voice from the spectators' row in loud protest—

Attorney Oestreich: "Keep quiet, Mrs. Frank."

About a month ago Mrs. Johanna Frank of Ft. Atkinson bought a lot of Mrs. Katherine Egan. The two ladies now live on adjoining lots on South Jackson street, near the brewery. It is alleged that one day this week Mrs. Egan went over on her neighbor's premises and tore up several feet of sidewalk which she claimed as her property, besides making threats when Mrs. Frank protested against her action.

Yesterday Mrs. Egan was arrested by Officer Champion on a civil warrant charging her with trespass and summoned to defend herself in municipal court in a action for $15 damages. She finally sent for Attorney Harry Maxfield and late in the afternoon the case was settled by the defendant's paying $5 and the costs of the action.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Looking for Hyatt House: Mr. and Mrs. Morton Kimball of Chicago, en route for Fond du Lac and persuaded to come this way by the heavy traffic in Milwaukee, were guests at the Grand hotel last night. "I haven't been in Janesville since 1864—where's that big hotel that used to stand across the way?" asked Mr. Kimball of Manager David Young. "Burned down years ago," was Mr. Young's reply and he coupled it with the genial suggestion: "Better come here oftener and keep in closer touch with us."

Marriage License: Application for a marriage license has been filed by Robert Cheney of Elkhorn and Mary Clark of Edgerton.

Luck in Life.

Some people are always present in a railway smash, others in fires, others again in boats that upset; while a special providence watches over children, old people, sleep-walkers and drunkards. Life is not the same for all—far be it; and Napoleon was right when he said he preferred the lucky general to a clever one.—London Graphic.
